About the Analyst Team of the Year Competition

The Analyst Team of the Year category is a popular way for people to demonstrate their analytics expertise. Everyone works with the same dataset, so we start with a level playing field and avoid any confidentiality concerns.

Entrants have 24 hours to crunch the data, tell a compelling story and deliver a bit of a ‘wow’ factor with data and recommendations that are clear and accurate. They can use any readily accessible software they like to deliver their analysis and recommendations in the form of an interactive dashboard, spreadsheet or infographic.

This year’s brief asked teams to explore a topic that is always in the news – health inequalities. Teams were provided with a single source of data and encouraged to navigate what the ONS describe as ‘experimental statistics’.

The BHBA is very grateful to the organising and judging team, who put in many hours of hard work to design and assess the task. We also thank all the entrants, for taking the time to showcase your skills.
