The Business Skills Series is a collection of workshops that support the development of common business and personal skills. These skills enhance our impact and lead us from being the providers of data and research to valued and trusted business partners. These skills are relevant to everyone and span agency and client-side working, across all Business Insights disciplines. See how they relate to you and your role in the BHBIA Skills Framework.

Look out for the BHBIA Business Skills Series logo for workshops, webinars and events in this series.
