

Analyst Team of the Year

Awarded to the team of analysts who best showcase their skills in turning complex datasets into an interactive, engaging report that tells the story within the data

“Boehringer-Ingelheim is proud to sponsor the BOBI Analyst Team of the Year 2024. Distilling meaningful insights comes from collaboration and keeping an open mind to different perspectives. This award celebrates the collection of skills and thought processes that ultimately result in disparate pieces of data and information analysed and joined up for actionable recommendations.”

Winners' Statement

“It was a privilege and a joy to participate in this competition this year. We’d like to thank the BHIA and Boehringer Ingelheim for sponsoring this amazing opportunity! Well done to the other teams who participated for their amazing efforts.”

Runner-Up:

Boehringer Ingelheim – Nicolas Gorostidi, Sarah Yates, Lucinda Brown, Bev McMenemy, Tanya Smith, Michele Jones

The judges said:

This year’s winner delved into the health inequalities in England and delivered a strong story via video. They explored the disparity in mortality rates and highlighted factors such as region, socio-economic status, social deprivation and ethnicity that profoundly influence health outcomes. They built a compelling narrative with data-driven recommendations.
